Creativity at Centre Stage: Celebrating the Heart of Fine Arts at EBHS

Take ten steps inside our school's front doors or scroll through our socials, and you cannot miss the talent, creativity, and hard work of our students that is showcased. I am sometimes the fortunate recipient of art pieces on loan or gifted to me to adorn my office walls and I am stunned by the artistic brilliance captured on canvas.

This month, the excitement is palpable as our theatre performance and drama class students take to the stage! This year's production of Willy Wonka at the Esplanade promises to be a delightful showcase of sights, sounds and storytelling. Under the guidance of dedicated teachers and many community volunteers, students are not only learning their lines and perfecting their performances but also gaining valuable skills that will serve them for years to come: teamwork, confidence, technical skills, creative thinking, time management, and more! Our after school theatre performance option has allowed all students wanting to get involved in this production the opportunity to earn high school credits along the way.

For many students, stepping onto the stage or contributing to a successful production is a transformative experience that helps them see their own potential in new ways. Our drama teacher, Mrs. Morrison is directing the production. She has shared with me that the reward is in seeing students who started out shy or unsure of themselves completely blossom during this process. She says it is not just about putting on a show, it is about helping young people discover what they are capable of.

As opening night approaches, we want to say a huge thank you to parents, teachers, and everyone from our community who has played a part in bringing this show to fruition. Mark your calendars and get your tickets! Performances of Willy Wonka will take place February 6-8 at the Esplanade. I invite you to come for the whimsy, stay for the inspiration, and leave knowing you have supported the growth and development of these incredible young people.

~ Mrs. Howes, Principal

TRISTAN

Grandpa Joe

Tristan Fournier is taking the stage as Grandpa Joe. He is very happy with how his character has developed and says that he was so excited that their drama class numbers almost doubled from last year in Grade 10. He has enjoyed being a leader with the younger students involved and learning to work with so many different people from school and the community. He told me, "We're not a big high school, but together with some younger kids we are putting on a big show, with all the bells and whistles. I'm excited to be able to be part of such an incredible production."

ALEXA

Stage Crew

Alexa Gallwey stepped up to be part of the stage crew never having done anything like this before. She says she is excited for the show and bringing the "wow"-factor to a show of this scale. Her ability to be a full participant in the carpentry, building and creative painting of the sets and props has given her a whole new set of skills. "I have really had to learn to communicate with my teammates and teachers, and I have been challenged to self-advocate. I'm really looking forward to showtimes and, secretly, the backstage snacks too."

From the desk of our Student Wellness Counsellor...

BIG NEWS!! I am excited to announce the change in our job title from Family School Liaison Worker to Student Wellness Counsellor (SWC). This change better reflects the core responsibilities of our role, which is student-centered care, proactive mental health support, and fostering overall wellness within the school community. It also aligns more accurately with the professional counselling duties of the role, enhancing clarity for families, students and staff about services provided.

Did you know we have 7 Student Wellness Counsellors throughout PRPS division? We each hold at minimum a Bachelor's Degree and belong to a Professional Association such as Alberta College of Social Workers. You can have full confidence that our SWCs are competent and accountable for providing safe and ethical social work services. Stay tuned for a fun video highlighting the role of SWCs in our schools.

Coming soon!

Please feel free to reach out at Eagle Butte if you want to know more about my role in the School.
